Super Doggo Snack Time is a fresh, fun, and addicting mobile game. A casual arcade genre with a twist on the ‘tap at the right time’ design. Instead, players tap, hold, and release at the right time. With an aesthetically pleasing low-poly art style, Super Doggo Snack Time was inspired by the viral videos of silly pups who fail to catch treats tossed at them. The objective is for players to help the dog catch as many foods that are falling from the dinner table. The animation is charmingly comical and absurd; the longer the hold, the wider Doggo’s mouth opens. Described as challenging, competitive, and captivating, users tend to quickly learn the precise movements and unique properties of Super Doggo; the mastery of which can only be depicted as a “mind blowing” performance.
