

Pop Puff and Away! - A deceptively cute but challenging puzzle game!

MAKATI, Manila - September 26, 2015 - Accidental Rebel Games has released a new puzzle game called "Pop Puff and Away!" for iOS and Android mobile platforms.

The objective of the game is to guide the two protagonists, Pop the Bear and Pop the Dinosaur, in collecting all the cupcakes in every level. Scattered on each level are arrows that when stepped on, throws the stepper in the direction the arrow is pointing at. The aim is to manipulate the arrows so that Pop and Puff can get the cupcakes in the least number of turns possible.

Pop Puff and Away is a deceptively cute but challenging puzzle game that is easy to pick up for beginners but still sports a challenge for those who loves puzzle games.

The game is currently available on the iOS AppStore, Google PlayStore, and Amazon App Store.

Links to the game and the app stores can be found here:

<http://www.accidentalrebel.com/pop-puff-and-away>

Accidental Rebel Games is a one-man independent game development studio based in the Philippines headed by game programmer, Karlo Licudine. The studio's main focus is to team up with other creative individuals from the Philippines.

###

Press info: Press kit with screenshots and video are available at http://accidentalrebel.com/press/sheet.php?p=pop_puff_and_away